PRICE TWO CENTS

REVIVES CONTEMPT CASE AGAINST MR. LOUIS GILBERTSON

JUDGE SANBORN VACATES OR-DER DISCHARGING SHOE MAN

TRY TO SEND HIM TO JAIL

E. C. Higbee Battling This Afternoon to Save Gilbertson From a Prison Sentence

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 17.—(Special.)—Judge Sanborn in federal court today granted the motion of Attorney White, of Chicago, to vacate an order of July 9, discharging Louis Gilbertson of La Crosse from contempt proceedings. On July 9 last Judge Sanborn decided that as no property was discovered in Gilbertson's possession, he should be discharged from contempt proceedings based on allegations that he had defrauded his creditors, in a recent bankruptcy of his shoe store, by hiding the proceeds of a sale.

A few weeks ago it was found that about that time $5,000 had been deposited by relatives of Gilbertson in Chicago. The old order discharging Gilbertson was vacated today, although opposed in long argument by E. C. Higbee. This afternoon the court will hear the arguments on both sides as to whether it can now punish Gilbertson by prison sentence for contempt. Mr. Higbee will contend that it cannot.

THE POPE VIOLENTLY ILL IN BED TODAY

ROME, Jan. 17.—The pope is suffering from a violent attack of gout. His Holiness has been ordered to bed today for a long rest and all audiences have been suspended.

CALE FREED AFTER JUST FIVE MINUTES

Once convicted by a jury in county court on a charge of assault and battery, preferred by Henrietta Linn, Fred Cale, former merchant policeman, was found not guilty by a jury in circuit court yesterday. A verdict was reached five minutes after court adjourned last night, and it was found necessary to bring in a sealed verdict, which was read this morning.

The case went to the jury late yesterday afternoon, and a verdict was reached at 5:35. The alleged assault occurred on Sept. 4.

SUFFRAGISTS RAID PREMIER'S HOUSE

London, Jan. 17.—Suffragists raided Premier Campbell Bannerman's house during a cabinet meeting today, and a terrific battle was fought in the hallways. Pandemonium reigned throughout the establishment for an hour, and the streets were packed for blocks in each direction. Many arrests were made and a number were roughly handled by bobbies before order was restored. The crusaders are believed to have desired mainly to make a showing of their strength.

BROTHER PAYS FINE; KONICZNY FREED

Through the kindness of his brother, John Konieczny, serving a term of twenty days in the county jail for assault and battery in default of the payment of a $20 fine, was released from the jail this morning after serving four days. The brother paid the fine and costs, amounting to $26.48 today.

Konieczny pleaded guilty to an unprovoked assault on Gus Burand last Saturday night, and was sentenced to twenty days in jail on Monday.

TROOPS TO STAY IN GOLDFIELD NOW

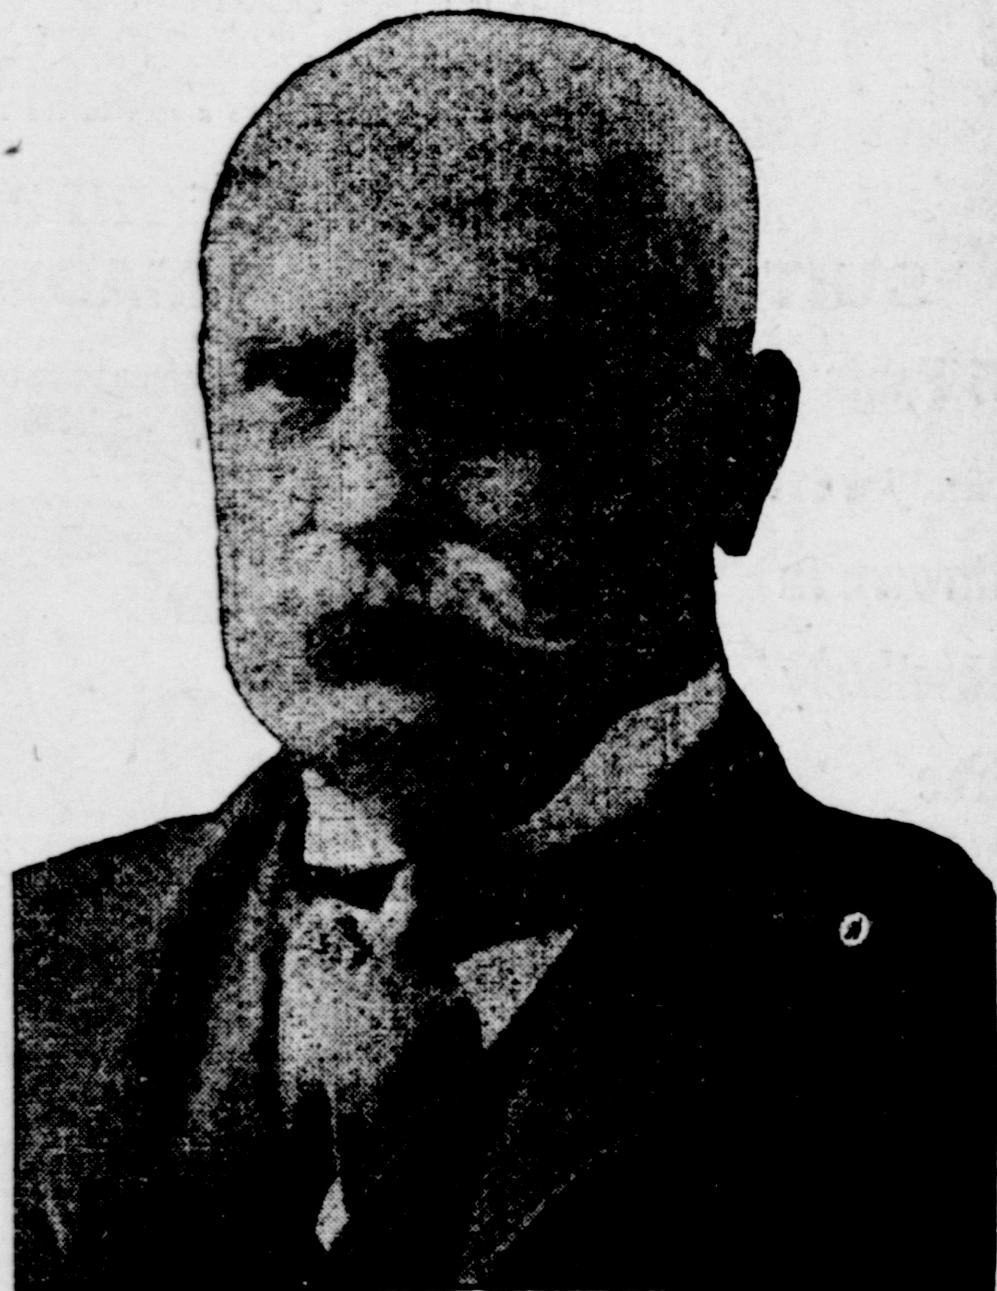

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—President Roosevelt today, in response to an appeal from the Nevada legislature, transmitted by Gov. Sparks, ordered the federal troops to remain at Goldfield until the legislature shall have an opportunity to organize a state police force.

SUNDAY SCHOOL IS POSTPONED A WEEK

Mrs. Catherine McFarlin, pastor of the Spiritualistic church and of the new non-sectarian Sunday school, has been called to Plainview, Minn., by the death of a sister, and there will be no Sunday school next Sunday. The evening Spiritualistic services will also be postponed for a week.

ILL WITH GRIP.
Mrs. J. D. Richmond of West La Crosse is seriously ill with la grippe.

ALDRICH IN PUBLIC GAZE BECAUSE OF CURRENCY REFORM

SEN. NELSON WILMARTH ALDRICH OF RHODE ISLAND.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 16.—True to his promise, Senator Nelson Wilmarth Aldrich of Rhode Island, chairman of the senate committee on finance, has given the upper house of congress a definite and tangible currency plan for its consideration, and, as expected, financial war is on in the senate. As a result, Senator Aldrich becomes the leading figure of national interest in the senate at the present hour. His emergency currency bill provides for the issuance of additional bank notes in time of emergency to the limit of $25,000,000 on other security than United States bonds, such issuance and such security to be under the direction, supervision and control of the comptroller of the currency, secretary of the treasury and the treasurer of the United States. The prospective emergency currency is to be issued through the various subtreasuries. Bankers shall take the initiative in putting this emergency currency into circulation. When an emergency arises, such as in the judgment of the bankers of a certain subtreasury district demands a greater volume of money, the bankers are to make the application to this board of three federal officers named above, and if they approve the issue the wheels for putting the emergency currency into circulation will be at once set in motion. It is probable that the bill will be made the subject of the principal debate and consideration in the senate for some time to come. There is opposition on the part of many in both parties who view the bill as lacking in provisions for the general welfare, however acceptable it may be in the big banking centers.

ERICK THORSTAD JOINS MAJORITY

IN BUSINESS MANY YEARS

Retired 18 Years Ago and Since Has Taken Life Easy; Funeral on Sunday Afternoon

Erick Thorstad, one of the pioneer grocers of this city, died last evening at his home, 1015 Mississippi street, after a lingering illness with complication of diseases and old age.

Mr. Thorstad was born in Gudbrandsdalen, Norway, in 1820, and after receiving an education in the schools near that place, emigrated to America and settled in La Crosse in 1854. After coming to La Crosse he was employed at various grocers' stores about the city until 1870 when he went into business for himself, opening a general store at Third and Jay street. After a few years his business grew rapidly and he moved to the corner of Third and King street, where he remained until about 18 years ago when he sold his business and retired from active work.

Deceased was an honorary member of the Norden society of this city and was interested in the work for many years. His wife preceded him to the grave about two years ago, and surviving him is one daughter, Mrs. Anna Cooh, formerly of Kentucky.

The funeral, which will be under the charge of the Norden society, will be held Sunday afternoon from the Norwegian Lutheran church at Sixth and Division street. Rev. H. G. Magelessen will conduct the services and interment will take place at Oak Grove cemetery. Fessler & Dahl in charge.

OPERATION TOLAY.
Miss Jennie Christianson was taken to the La Crosse hospital this morning from her home at 1619 Charles street and operated upon for a tumor by Dr. J. L. Callahan.

She was resting easily this afternoon and is expected to recover rapidly.

WALSH JURY NOT NEAR CONCLUSION

JUDGE WILL KEEP THEM OUT
AS LONG AS POSSIBLE

TRIAL COST COOL $200,000

Jurors Get Case Yesterday but This Afternoon are Still Out—Walsh Confident

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—So far as surface indications are concerned the Walsh jury is no nearer an agreement than when it went off its room last night.

The judge announced he will keep the jury out as long as possible. The trial will cost the government and defense $100,000 each.

RICH WOMAN JUMPS FROM FOURTH STORY

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Mrs. Herbert Sears, wife of the millionaire Boston lawyer, leaped to death from the thirteenth story of the Saint Regis hotel to the roof of a four story residence adjoining today.

Every bone was broken and her face was badly disfigured.

She was identified by her maid. Indications are that she carefully planned the suicide. After retiring she wrote a letter to her husband, then locked the door to her maid's room.

The coroner is holding the letter for her husband, who is now enroute.

INQUEST OVER MILBAUER LIKELY

There is some talk of holding an inquest over the body of Carl Milbauer, District Attorney, Otto Bossard stated that while nothing will be done at present they may decide to hold one later.

FUNERAL TOMORROW.

The funeral of the mother of Mrs. Henry Gund will be held at the Gund residence at 3:30 tomorrow afternoon, Rev. Moller officiating. Interment at Oak Grove.

WRITES DAILY LOG OF FLEET'S TRIP

ASA TURNER SENDS STORY OF VOYAGE TO MOTHER

SPENDS TIME ON WATCH

Tells of Stop at Trinidad, and Says
He Expects to Land When Fleet
Is Stopping at Rio Janeiro

Asa Turner, of this city, whose "log" of the events aboard the flagship Connecticut follows, may have been on that vessel today at the hour when rumor says it was blown up, although most of the crew were presumed to be ashore taking part in the gala ceremonies. The report of the disaster is not credited in the navy department.

While the formidable fleet of battleships of the United States is cruising on the way to the Pacific coast, one mother watches the news dispatches each day with anxious eyes, for her son is aboard the flagship Connecticut. Perhaps she watches the mails more closely, for this devoted son remembers his mother and writes her of the trip, mailing a letter at each stop.

The mother is Mrs. Helen Turner, 504 Cass street, and the son, or on the cruise with the fleet is Asa Turner. Each day on the trip, young Turner writes of the occurrences of the trip. When the fleet stops at port, the letter is mailed.

The first letter, which is produced below, describes the trip from Hampton Roads, the review of the fleet by the president, and the journey to Trinidad, where the first stop was made.

Following is the letter:
"At Sea, Dec. 17, 1907.
"Dear Mother and Sister:—I received your letter just before we left

Hampton Roads, and was glad to hear from you. I am well and hope this will find you the same.

"I will start and write this letter now, so I will have quite a letter when we get to Trinidad. I will try and write a little every day, then I will mail it the first chance I get.

"We left Hampton Roads on Dec. 16, about 9:30 in the morning, and we had a fine start. President Roosevelt was there to review the fleet as each ship passed his yacht, the May-

FAIR DIRECTORS MEET TUESDAY

It is probable the directors of the La Crosse Inter-State Fair association will choose the last week in September for the 1908 fair. The Northern Wisconsin State Fair association at Chippewa Falls, Wis., has chosen the week of Sept. 14 to 18, and La Crosse probably will follow with Sept. 21 to 25. The local fair directors will meet Tuesday night.

FREEPORT BANKER DIES.
FREEPORT, Ill., Jan. 17.—Daniel C. Stover, 67, leading banker and manufacturer, died today.

TO ATTEND TRIAL.
Engineer A. Foster of the Burlington road leaves this evening for Syracuse, N. Y., where he will be involved in a law-suit for a few days.

LEAVES ON VISIT TO UNKNOWN PEOPLE

GEORGE A. DORSEY

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—George A.

Dorsey, curator of the department of anthropology of the Field Museum of Natural History at Chicago, has sailed on the Lusitania for England. He goes on one of the most scientific expeditions ever undertaken. His purpose is the most comprehensive expedition to unknown lands ever taken by any scientific institution. Before his return he will visit many practically unknown people, acting as the pathfinder for further expeditions of inquiry which the big Chicago museum is to promote. In addition to Mr. Dorsey's expedition, the Field Museum of Chicago has also set out to give to the world of science its comprehensive exposition of the characteristics and customs of the people of Tibet, the forbidden land. Undertaking this work, Dr. Laufer, recently of the faculty of Columbia university, sailed on January 7 from this port for a stay of three years in the country of the Lamas. While Dr. Laufer is living with his strange inhabitants of Tibet, Mr. Dorsey will be exploring other practically unknown peoples in the heart of unknown Asia and Africa.

ALLEGED "YEGG" ON TRIAL TODAY

JAMES HOWARD, ALLEGED BUR-GLAR, IN COURT

OFFICER GIVES TESTIMONY

Attorney Hartwell Objects, But His Objection is Overruled by the Court

James Howard, alleged yeggman, who is alleged to have burglarized the school house in joint district No. 16, of the towns of Farmington and Hamilton on Sept. 23, and to have stolen the cravenette coat of Earl McIntosh, the teacher, was placed on trial in circuit court this morning. Attorney F. H. Hartwell is defending Howard, while District Attorney Rosshard has the prosecution in hand.

At the outset of the trial, Attorney Hartwell offered an objection to the proceedings, declaring that the statutes do not cover the burglary of a school, and that as a result no crime is mentioned in the information. Judge Fruit overruled the objection for the time being, and it was ordered entered on the records. It is probable the argument will be heard later.

Another objection was offered, when the state placed Judge Brindley, who sentenced Howard to the county jail for a period of forty-five days for the larceny of an overcoat, on the stand to testify to the previous conviction of the defendant. Fred Haun, turnkey at the county jail, also was placed on the stand. Attorney Hartwell objected to this form of procedure. He said the state was attempting to influence the jury, and that the direct evidence of the burglary ought to be introduced first, and the testimony on the previous conviction charge later. Judge Fruit overruled this objection also.

Earl McIntosh was the first witness. He described the cravenette coat, its loss, his locking the building, and the manner in which an entrance might be affected. McIntosh also described the location of the school building, interior and exterior.

Following is the jury which will determine the fate of Howard: William Schams, Joseph Hafner, E. F. Pratt, K. Karsenacker, J. G. Shrank, J. C. Wolford, Robert B. Lowry, George Bedessem, John Freehoff, William Walters, J. Rehffuss and W. J. Dunning.

UNVERIFIED RUMOR DECLARES FLAGSHIP CONNECTICUT BLOWN UP IN HARBOR AT RIO JANEIRO

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—A rumor was circulated here today that the battleship Connecticut, Admiral Evans' flagship, has been blown up in the harbor at Rio Janeiro. No dispatches that could possibly form a basis for such a report had been received at the navy department up to 1 o'clock, and officials scouted the idea.

RIO JANEIRO, Jan. 17.—Admiral of today's program. The admiral has Evans' trip ashore and the two mile boat race between the crews of the federal warships here, are features not yet had a chance to set foot ashore, and elaborate preparations have been made for receiving him.

THAW TRIUMPHS IN INSANITY PROOF

EVELYN AND MRS. WILLIAM THAW BOTH ON STAND

BOY MAD FROM HIS BIRTH

Testimony Continues to Show That Youth of Thaw Was One of Erratic Conduct

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Three distinct surprises occurred in the Thaw trial, with the defense scoring heavily, at the morning session. Two important witnesses declared under oath that they considered Thaw irrational from birth. Incidentally Evelyn Thaw for the first time was permitted to enter the lime light, being called to the witness stand and sworn, only to be immediately withdrawn in order that two police doormen might tell of Thaw's irrational acts.

Mrs. William Thaw was called to the stand at 2:25 this afternoon. Evelyn was called to the stand at 11:35 today. After she had been sworn Littleton conferred with his associates, then withdrew her temporarily, explaining he was not ready to examine her.

His Madness Plain

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—With growing strength the Thaw defense is piling up evidence showing Thaw's insanity was well nigh from birth.

The question of the ultimate fate of Evelyn again is a live topic. The estrangement between her and Thaw's relatives seems now to be complete. The latter have tolerated her because she was necessary to the defense. She is hardly that now. As witness she can be depended on to do her best for Harry, realizing her own position, but even if she did not testify Littleton would have enough witnesses to make a good showing along the insanity line.

He set out to prove that today. The question is being asked if Evelyn is to lose her husband. If her husband goes, her income is also likely to be cut off. While there have been rumors that a settlement has been made, they never have been confirmed.

Miss Fletcher Shrewd

Mrs. Alice C. Fletcher of Washington, was the first witness called today. She knew the family well, said she had visited Pittsburgh at least once a year for the past quarter of a century. She testified that Thaw's condition as a child was very nervous, his face and hands twitched and he was subject to violent outbursts. She said his expression was wild and staring at times.

Miss Fletcher is connected with the archaeological bureau of the government, is a fellow in Harvard university, and one of the best known scientific women in the country. When questioned by Jerome she declared to be tangled and there was a widening smile on Littleton's face as he watched the clever oral fencing.

Catherine O'Neill, who was a nurse in the Thaw family for six years, was called and testified that Thaw was a delicate child, moody and subject to fits. She said she thought his mind was affected. On cross-examination she said he was generally nervous and was passionate and high strung outside of his spells.

When she was dismissed, Littleton sprang a surprise by calling Evelyn. As she took the stand she smiled at Harry, and was sworn, after which she settled herself in her chair. But after a brief conference Littleton announced he was not yet ready to examine her, and withdrew her from the stand.

HUGHES BOOMERS ARE BEATEN AGAIN

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—For the second time last night, the Hughes boomers tried to force through the New York county committee a resolution to indorse Gov. Hughes as a candidate for the presidency and met with signal defeat.

ARCH DUKE DIES.
SALSBURG, Austria, Jan. 17.—Arch Duke Ferdinand, fourth grand duke of Tuscany, died here today.

O. S. SISSON DIES THIS AFTERNOON

STOMACH TROUBLE IS CAUSE OF HIS DEMISE

PROMINENT WAR VETERAN

Served Through the War and Was Well Known Pension Attorney
Here for Many Years

O. S. Sisson, a former member of the county board of supervisors, and veteran of the civil war, died this afternoon at 2:40 o'clock at his home, 214 South Nineteenth street, at the age of 63 years. Stomach trouble, which was contracted during the civil war, caused the death of Mr. Sisson after a recurring attack about two weeks ago. Since that time, Mr. Sisson had been confined to his bed.

Mr. Sisson was a member of Company B, Thirtieth Wisconsin cavalry, enlisting at the age of 16 years. He claimed to be the youngest veteran of the civil war in Wisconsin.

For several years past, Mr. Sisson has been engaged as a pension attorney. He also was a member of the county board of supervisors for several terms, serving on the grounds and buildings committee, which had charge of the construction of the new county building.

A widow and two sons, Frank Sisson, a member of the wholesale grocery firm of Bryant & Sisson, and Dr. Frank Carl Sisson, Elgin, Ill., survive.

No arrangements have been made for the funeral, although it is probable the service will be held Sunday.

MAY ACT AGAINST LOCAL PHONE CO.

A delegation of Barre Mills farmers representing patrons of the La Crosse Interurban telephone line, last night made an unsuccessful effort to have the rates on their phones reduced from $1.50 to $1, at a meeting with Manager George Schweizer.

D. C. Miller, one of the delegation, said today the report of the committee would be made to the phone patrons at a mass meeting tomorrow, and that he believed they would take action toward boycotting the phones.

BREAK RIB IN FALL FROM LOAD

Walter Smith, Stevenstown, while coming to La Crosse this morning with a load of hay, fell from the top of the load while going through Long Couee, north of Onaska, and sustained a fractured rib. He was taken to Onaska by his son, who was a short distance behind Mr. Smith with a second load, and his injuries dressed. About two months ago Mr. Smith suffered a similar accident and was only able to be about his work a few weeks.

CHILD IMPROVING

The ten-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Larson of Onaska, who was seriously burned about the face and hands while playing near the fire at the parents' home yesterday, is slightly improved today. Dr. Weston, who is attending the child, stated today that the child would recover all right and no scar would result from the burns.

ATHLETIC ASS'N. HOLDS MEETING

HIGH SCHOOL MONOGRAM IS SELECTED

TWO GIRLS' TEAMS PICKED

Two More Players are Given the Privilege of Wearing the Official Football Monogram

The Athletic association of the High school held a meeting in the auditorium Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The reports of several committees were made and accepted.

The official football monogram was decided on and the sweaters picked for the team. Two more men, Otto Mueller and Walter Shirley, were given the right to wear the monogram for faithful work on the eleven during the last season.

Best Girl Teams Picked

The two best teams were picked out yesterday by Miss Hecton. The first team will not be allowed to enter the class games but will compete with teams outside of the school. The two teams are as follows:

First team—Helen Schofield, Mary Anderson, Helen Harrison, Edna Anderson, Gertrude Smith.

Second team—Margaret Farnam, Pearl Laughlin, Stella Trane, Ella Horne, Helen Anderson.

A regular schedule has been made out and at least two games will be played every week. The winning boys' team and the winner of the girls' interclass games will each be awarded with a championship banner.

McGOVERN TURNS UPON REFEREE

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 17.—Terry McGovern, once champion of the world, came near knocking out "Wild Bill" Donovan, the star pitcher of the American league in 1907 in the course of a sparring match here.

McGovern and "Young" Corbett are giving exhibitions in a local theatre. Today the management obtained Donovan as an additional attraction, to act as referee. Near the end of the third round the boxers came to a clinch and when Donovan tried to get them to break McGovern turned upon him like a flash and landed merciless punches on Donovan's stomach and jaw. "Wild Bill" reeled and almost went to the floor. He had time neither to protect himself or dodge.

McGovern is believed to be a little light mentally since his term in an eastern sanitarium.

CHICAGOAN MAKES KAUFMAN OFFER

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 17.—Jim Barry is out with a challenge to Al Kaufman. Barry says "I will fight Kaufman, winner take all, and give him a side bet of from $3,000 to $10,000. I am sincere in my offer and agree to post the money within forty-eight hours after Kaufman signifies his intention of meeting me. I don't claim to have the money myself, but have two men, one of them John L. Sullivan who will back me for that amount against Kaufman. Now if Al is in earnest, let him show what he can do. I have put the matter up to him, so let him come through with an answer or brand himself as a man out after cheap publicity and not hard fights."

OHIO TO HAVE A STATE LEAGUE

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 17.—The Marion, Newark, Mansfield and Lancaster baseball clubs are charter members of the Ohio State league, formed here after an agreement to dissolve the Ohio-Pennsylvania league had been reached. Richmond, Ind., will have membership in the new league and protection of the Lima, Springfield, Zanesville, and Hamilton territory in Ohio, and of Muncie, in Indiana, has been asked for in order that three more clubs can be secured. Robert Quinn, business manager of the Columbus A. A. club, was elected president, and R. W. Read, a Columbus newspaper man, will act as secretary.

THREE CHAMPION GOLFERS AT WEDDING

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 17.—An intercollegiate athletic wedding occurred here in which Burnside Winslow, a Yale '04 former baseball captain was bridegroom. Helen Trowbridge Carrington, golf champion in 1904, was the bride. Two of her bridesmaids were Pauline Mackey and Carmelita Shreve of Boston, both former holders of championship honors. Walter Camp, Yale's athletic director, gave a reception at the New Haven House for the guests.

1909 BOWLING IN MILWAUKEE AGAIN

CREAM CITY IS HOME OF THE ENTHUSIASTS

BOOM W.RTH FOR PRESIDENT

Good Scores Are Made in the State Tourney at Milwaukee Yesterday

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 17.—Milwaukee will undoubtedly be selected for the next meet of the Wisconsin State Bowling association, at the annual meeting of the organization this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at the Plankinton house. Fond du Lac, the only other bidder for the 1909 tournament, has practically retired from the race and little opposition is expected from that direction but the Milwaukee bowlers. There is a possibility that a dark horse may put in a successful bid at the final minute, but this is regarded as unlikely.

Though several bowlers have been named in the connection with the presidency of the association, indications point to the election of R. C. Wirth. Wirth is popular with the followers of the game throughout the state and as several of the local chiefs have been booming him for the job his election appears assured. J. J. Carpenter, the present incumbent, says that he will refuse to accept the office again. A. L. Langtry, secretary of the association, is not seeking re-election, but it is probable that he will be urged to take the position again.

STUDENTS URGE SEVEN GAMES

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Jan. 17.—The University of Illinois senate is being pressed to change its stand on the seven game proposition for football, and if the movement succeeds the enlarged schedule may pull through, Illinois' change of vote being enough, it is said.

Daily Illini, the student organ, today intimates the action of the senate in overruling the unanimous vote of the four faculty members of the board of athletic control was more or less, a slap in the face. The senate is composed of the deans and heads of the departments.

Plans for the diversity of sports and encouragement of the lesser ones will suffer from lack of funds if seven games are not allowed. The student sentiment may bring about the desired change of base.

SOX LEAVE NEXT MONTH FOR COAST

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 17.—Charles Fredericks, secretary of the Chicago White Sox, was in Milwaukee for a brief visit yesterday in connection with the suit brought by George Comiskey, owner of the Sox. Mr. Fredericks said that the Sox will train in California this spring and that the team will leave Chicago either Feb. 29 or March 1 for the Pacific coast. About thirty players will be in the Sox squad, and in addition there will be the usual following of newspaper correspondents and faithful fans.

FREEPORT SIGNS TWO NEW MEN

FREEPORT, Ill., Jan. 17.—The Freeport association of the Wisconsin-Illinois league has signed Charles and John Forsythe of Waverly, Ia. They play as pitcher and catcher respectively.

WHITE SOX GET CHAS. ARMBUSTER

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—President Comiskey yesterday received the contract of Charles Armbuster, the second of the White Sox catchers to sign. The former Bostonian has been passing the winter at Cold Springs, N. Y., and writes he is in fine health and ready for the training season. "Jiggs" Donohue was a caller at the Sox headquarters, and while he has not signed, expects to be one of the squad which will start for California March 1.

The Y. M. C. A. team is practicing hard for the Hillsboro game, Jan. 24.

ROUSE O'BRIEN GETS A "LICKIN'"

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Although battered from one side of the ring to the other, with his arms dangling useless at his sides, Rouse O'Brien of Boston refused to quit in the fourth round of his six-round battle with Jack Goodman at the Sharkey Athletic club last night. Try as Goodman did, he was unable to win decisively and Referee Jim Buckley was severely criticized for not stopping the bout.

McINTYRE SUSPENDED

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 17.—The stewards of the New California Jockey club today suspended J. McIntyre, the jockey, for an indefinite period. McIntyre, who rode in France last summer for the Duke de Grammont, had been riding badly for some time. His culminating offence was on Blonidin the day before yesterday. He recently engaged in a wordy war with a visitor, who complained to the stewards.

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 17.—Manager Armour announced he had secured the Chicago White Sox for two games here on their spring trip, April 7 and 8. Armour also announced that Jack Suthoff, one of the local club's crack twirlers, had signed his 1908 contract.

Do You Enjoy Your Meals?

One of the Most Important Questions to Consider in the Search for Happiness and Health

The burning question, to you, is, "Are you getting out of life all the pleasure and the health your are entitled to?" If not, why not?

No matter whether every organ and member of your body is in a sound state of health and strength, if your stomach is in any way disordered, you are not going to be "yourself." You are going to be a worried, out-of-sorts, nervous or sullen individual, whose actions will reflect your condition inside and people will naturally avoid you.

The world wants to smile and be cheerful, and unless you are cheerful and smile, at least, occasionally, you will have few friends, fewer opportunities, no success, and you will go down in defeat,—defeat by dyspepsia and a bad stomach.

A good and thorough digestion has a quick, wonderful reaction upon the brain. You must have noticed it many times, for the brain and stomach are as intimately connected as a needle and its thread, one can hardly be used to advantage without the other. If your stomach is slow and lazy in digesting your food, it will produce at once a slow, lazy and cloudy influence upon your brain.

Mark it! If your stomach has absolutely quit work, and fermentation is poisoning your vitals as a result, surely your brain is going to be sluggish and correspondingly depressed. No one need tell you that.

But why continue to suffer all the miseries and torments that a disordered stomach brings you?

If your stomach can not digest your food, what will? Where's the relief? Where the cure?

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the relief and the cure. Why? Because, as all stomach troubles arise from indigestion and because one ingredient of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is able to thoroughly and completely digest 3,000 grains of any kind of food, doesn't it stand to reason that these little Dyspepsia Tablets are going to digest all the food and whatever food you put into your stomach? Science nowadays can digest food without having to use the stomach for it. And Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the result of this scientific discovery. They digest and digest thoroughly and well, anything and everything you eat.

So, if your stomach refuses to work or can't work, and you suffer from eructations, bloating, flatulence, heartburn, irritation, indigestion, or dyspepsia of whatever form, just take one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and see the difference. It doesn't cost you much to prove it. Then you can eat all you want, what you want, whenever you want, if you use these tablets, and you can look the whole world in the face with a beaming eye and you will have a cheerful spirit, a pleasant face, vigorous body and a clear mind and memory and everything will look and taste delicious to you. That's life.

Get a package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store on earth for 50c a package.

BEVERIDGE PLANS NEW TARIFF BILL

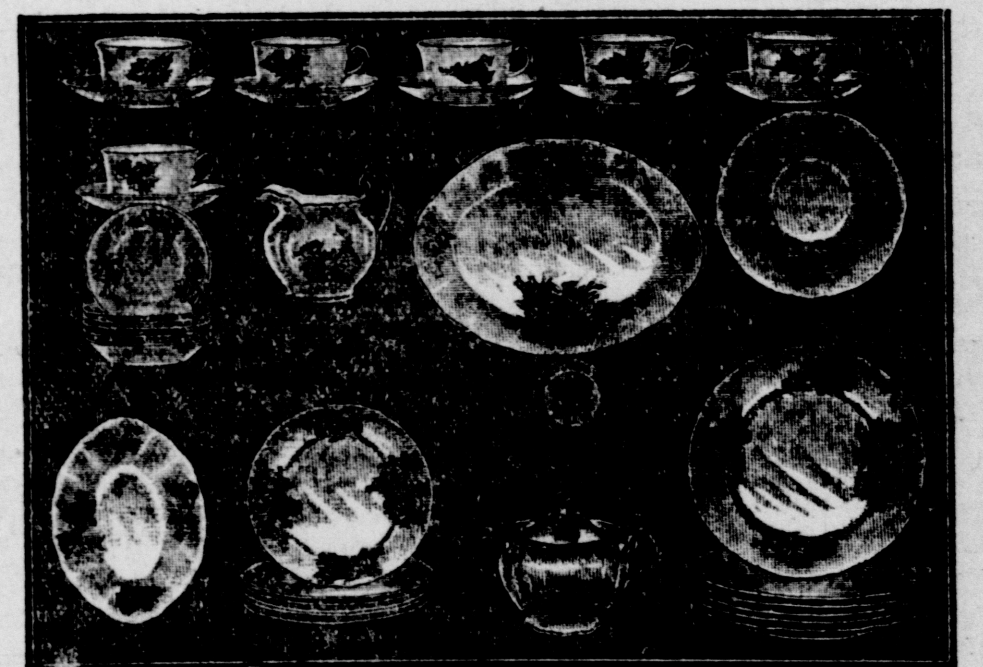

SENATOR BEVERIDGE

The bill introduced by Senator Beveridge of Indiana providing for a commission to investigate tariff revision deserves careful consideration. This bill is not intended to carry out any pet scheme of any one senator for revision of the tariff, but it proposes to create a commission whose duty it will be to proceed immediately to investigate the cost of production covered by the tariff laws, the price of American labor and the cost of raw material entering into the manufacture of articles. The commission will sit with the committee on banking and currency of the house and the committee on finance of the senate whenever it is desired, and aid them in revising schedules. Senator Beveridge says he believes there is a universal demand for the revision of the tariff schedules, which ought to take place as soon as the next presidential campaign is over. He maintains, however, that it would be absolutely impossible for the committees of congress to undertake revision without the aid of a commission such as he will prescribe in his bill.

BUCKET BRIGADE SAVES SMALL TOWN

HAWLEY, Minn., Jan. 17.—With only a bucket brigade to protect the property of the village, it was feared for some time that this entire place was doomed. Fire broke out in the J. L. Johnson grocery and rapidly spread to the N. J. Fyshell hardware store and the Emerson feed store, all of which are frame buildings and burned like tinder. The aggregate loss will reach nearly $20,000, with insurance of less than half. President Wesal of the council had the fire departments of Moorhead and Fargo ready to start for Hawley when the flames were brought under control.

A FINANCE INSURRECTION.

In his Washington correspondence to The Tribune, J. E. Welliver declares that Speaker Cannon has told some of his close friends that if necessary he will be willing to reorganize the personnel of the house committee on banking and currency in order to force the Aldrich bill to passage this session.

The house committee, it is well known, has got out from under the thumb of the speaker. Chairman Fowler and some other students of the currency question have not taken kindly to the Aldrich proposition.
The speaker himself was supposed,
before the holidays, to be opposed to any currency legislation. If he had that idea in mind when he named the committee, he made excellent selections for the purpose. But since the recess he has occupied a different position, and has been in favor of the Aldrich plan. The house committee has shown no disposition whatever to acquiesce in this arrangement. Its majority is understood to oppose the senate idea, and to be disposed to make a fight. In this there is a strong republican element in the house ready to join,
while the democrats seem to be at last united on one proposition: to oppose the Aldrich measure.

Chairman Fowler is on exceedingly bad terms with the powers of the administration because of his letters criticizing the relief measures adopted by Secretary Cortelyou and highly commended by the president. He has no disposition to take water, and his following in the house has proved surprisingly large. Add to this the fact that a vast volume of criticism
has been aimed against the Aldrich measure on the ground that it is a mere makeshift and would at best only temporarily relieve the situation, and it is easy to understand how the situation has become difficult.

Should the speaker actually undertake to recognize the personnel of his committee in order that the legislation might be reported, there would be a tremendous explosion of wrath,
and the charge of usurping
power, of czar rule, etc., would be repeated as never before. But the speaker and the president and the leaders of the republican party are said to be remarkably near agreement that the Aldrich bill is the best that is to be had, and they are disposed to stand together to the end. One member declared at the end of vigorous denunciation of it, that he fully expected it to pass because all the powers were for it. And while the Aldrich bill lacks the approval of many of the nation's soundest financiers, and has that of some of the most trustworthy representatives in congress of the money monopoly,

and while it is deficient in consideration of the country at large and
"just the thing" for the few big financial centers, it is the general expectation that it will be passed—after a fight.

HARRIMAN MUST TALK, BUT
"TALK IS CHEAP."

Judge Hough, a New York jurist
of the federal branch, has decided that E. H. Harriman and Otto Kahn, the latter of Kahn, Loeb & Co., must answer certain questions propound-ed recently by the interstate commission, and ignored by these gentlemen as a matter of privilege. The refusals to answer came up relative to $28,000,000 of Illinois Central stock, purchased by the Union Pacific, apparently from Harriman, at an immense profit to the vendor. Harriman declined to answer these questions.

"Were the 90,000 shares sold by yourself, Mr. Rogers and Mr. Stillman pooled?"
"Was it acquired for the purpose of selling it to the Union Pacific?"
"Was the stock purchased by you at a much lower price than $175
with the intention of turning it over to the Union Pacific?"
"Did you have any interest in the 105,000 shares sold at the same time by Kuhn, Loeb & Co., to the Union Pacific?"

"Was that 105,000 shares acquired by the same pool for the purpose of selling them to the Union Pacific?"
Mr. Harriman felt that these questions not only were not pertinent, but that they were impertinent.
Supposing he and associates did control Union Pacific, and supposing they pooled to buy Illinois Central cheap and sold it to themselves as Union Pacific directors for a fat profit of some hundreds per cent?
One has to be thrifty, and not too scrupulous, to make money, doesn't one?

Relative to a certain arbitrary and seemingly artificial advance in dividends of Union Pacific, accompanied by a bulge in the stocks of that road,
Mr. Harriman had declined to answer, and now must answer, the following questions:

"Were you directly or indirectly interested in any stocks that were bought between July 19 and Aug. 17
that appreciated?"

"Did you or any director buy any Union and Southern Pacific stocks in anticipation of that dividend?"

Isn't that fresh for you? Prying around and trying to find out if one of our "substantial business interests" like Harriman created a fic-titiously large dividend in order to take part in it, gave stocks an up-shoot in order to accept profits on the enhanced market price, and in a broad and general way courted prosperity with judgment and ardor?
And now that the commission is going to have Mr. Harriman tell it all these things that are "none of its business" about his business, as Mr.
Harriman has now and then said,
"What is the government going to do about it?"

QUIPS AND CRANKS
AND WANTON WILES

The Common Enemy.
There is sneezing and there's wheez-
ing.

To be heard all over town;
There are hacking coughs not lacking.

Chilly thrills that will not down,
There is groaning, there is moaning,
And abroad has gone the tip,
"Get your whiskey, quinine frisky,
For the town has got the grip."

Public dizzy, doctors busy, Druggists working with broad smile.

More new cases in all places
Showing up each little while.

Wives despairing, men all swearing,
First a tear and then a frown,
Lots of nurses, empty purses,
For the grip has come to town.

Every meeting one's repeating
To his neighbor good advice
How to keep well, how to sleep well,
And it sounds so very nice.

But 'tis needless for folks heedless
Wise advice let slip,
For they know it—all things show Everybody's.

Got
The Grip.

Only a Fence Between According to the Standard, a stranger addressed the farmer's boy
across the fence.

"Young man, your corn looks kind
o' yellow."

"Yes, that's the kind we planted."

"Don't look as if you would get more than half a crop."

"We don't expect to. The land lord gets the other half."

Then, after a short time, the man said: "Boy, there isn't much difference between you and a fool."

"Nope," replied the boy, "only the fence."

Sir Robert Ball had delivered a lecture on "Sun Spots and Solar Chemistry." A young lady who met him expressed her regret at having missed the lecture. "Well," he said,
"I don't know as you'd have been particularly interested. It was all about sun spots."

"Why," she replied, "it would have interested me exceedingly. I have been a martyr to freckles all my life."—Bellman.

SPOTLIGHTS

"No Mother to Guide Her."

An altogether delightful play is the universal sentiment of the immense audiences which have witnessed the international success, "No Mother to Guide Her," which will be seen at the La Crosse theatre on Sunday, Jan. 16. The play has been an instant hit this season and the press of the surrounding towns is unanimous in its praise. It has been given a metropolitan production in every respect and no weak point is to be found either in cast, scenery or costumes. The latter has become a feature of the attraction and the gowns worn by the ladies, five in number, are said to be most beautiful. The piece is brim full of comedy and specialties.

The Daniels Stock company gave a most delightful performance of Sherlock Holmes in a "Study in Scarlet," last evening.

The company's claim that this is one of the best written plays in the dramatic repertoire of today was fully demonstrated. Mr. Frank Daniels as Sherlock Holmes was equal to the task before him and showed his conception of the part to be the result of a diligent study of Conan Doyle writings.

Julian and Dyer, the novelty vaudeville act introduced, was highly entertaining and was cordially received by the audience.

They will be seen at each performance during the rest of the engagement. Tonight the company offers
"The Cross Roads of Crime," a most sensational melodrama, yet void of anything that will offend. A beautiful heart story runs throughout the play. Those who love fun are promised all they desire. Mr. Emery and Mr. Churchill will be seen in strong comedy parts and Mr. Harry Wilson and Miss Bessie Hawthorne, late of the Bush Temple Stock company, Chicago, will play prominent parts
in the cast.

Moving pictures and specialties will prevent any waits between the acts and a continuous performance is promised.

FASHION HINTS

(By May Manton.)

5874 Redingote. 33 to 43 bust.

(To be made in pointed or round outline.)

There is no coat more fashionable
than the redingote and it is so generally becoming that it deserves every whit of its popularity. This one is among the most graceful that have appeared and includes the fashionable vest of contrasting material while the skirt portion can be made pointed or round as may be found most coming. In the illustration plum colored broadcloth is stitched with silk and trimmed on the blouse portion with black soutache braid,
while the vest is of plum colored velvet. Every suiting material is appropriate, however, and the vest can be varied almost indefinitely, while the trimming can be one of many things. For the vest every contrasting material is used, plain broadcloth is smart and has become when ever the coat itself is made from velvet, velveteen or rough finished cloth. Oriental embroideries are used and the same material braided or embroidered often makes a satisfactory effect. For the edges of the coat, collar and cuffs wide braid
in place of the soutache or soutache
applique are to be commended.

The redingote is made with blouse and skirt portions, which are joined by the belt. The blouse consists of fronts and back and with a lining which is faced to form the vest and over which the blouse itself is arranged. The flat collar finishes the neck and the sleeves are made in two pieces, joined at the back and laid in inverted plaits.

The quantity of material required
for the medium size is 6 1/2 yards 27, 4 yards 44 or 3 1/2 yards 52 inches wide, with 1/2 yard of velvet for the vest.

The pattern 5874 is cut in sizes for a 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inch bust measure and will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of ten cents.

If you have sent an additional two cent stamp for letter postage which insures more prompt delivery.)

Sunday's Reformation.
An exchange tells this story of how the Evangelist "Billy" Sunday became a Christian:

"About twenty years ago last September a missionary was conducting a meeting in his gospel wagon at the corner of State and Van Buren streets. Four well dressed men came along and stopped to listen. It was evident from their appearance that they were all sporting men. The preacher consisted of Wm. Sunday, Mike Kelly and other sporting men.
Three of these commenced to jeer at Monroe, but Sunday became thoughtful and after a time sat down and buried his face in his hands and began to weep.

"Near the close of the meeting
when Monroe asked those who wished prayer to make it known, Sunday arose and made his resolution known.
He attended the evening meeting at the mission and accepted Christ as his Saviour. The following morning all the Chicago papers had sensational articles about the conversion of the great ball player. The following afternoon when he met his former associates at the baseball park,
they did not jeer at him, but instead nearly all respected him for what he had done and told him in substance
that he had acted wisely."

CHAPTER VIII
Alban Kennedy Dines.

Silas Geary led the way through the hall and thence to the winter garden. Here the display of plants was quite remarkable and the building
one that had cost many thousands of pounds. Designed, as all that Richard Gessner touched, to attract the wonder of the common people and to defy the derision of the connoisseur,
this immense garden had been the subject of articles innumerable and of pictures abundant. Vast in size, classic in form, it served many purposes, but chiefly as a gallery for the same custody of a collection of Oriental china which had no rival in Europe.

"It is our patron's hobby," said
the curate, mincingly, as he indicated the treasures of cloisonne and of porcelain; "he does not frivolously away his money as so many do,
on idle dissipations and ephemeral pleasures. On the contrary, he devotes it to the beautiful objects—"

"Do you call them beautiful, sir?"
Alban asked ingenuously. "They seem to me quite ugly. I don't think that if I had money I should spend it on plates and jars which nobody uses. I would much sooner buy a battleship and give it to the nation."

And then he asked, "Did Mr. Gess-ner put up all this glass to keep out the fresh air? Does he like being in a hot-house? I should have thought a garden would have been better."

Silas Geary could make nothing of such criticism as this.

"My dear lad," he protested, "you are very young and probably don't know what scintilla means. When I was your age, I could have slept upon a board and risen therefrom refreshed. At fifty it is otherwise.
We study the barometer then and dust before we sit. This great glass house is Mr. Gessner's winter temple. It is here that he plans and conceives so many of those vast schemes by which the world is astonished."

Alban looked at him curiously.
"Is the world really astonished by rich men?" he asked.

Mr. Geary stood still in amaze-

"Rank and birth rule the nation,"
he declared vehemently; "it is fit and proper that it should be so. Our aristocracy is rightly recruited from those who have accumulated the wealth necessary to such a position.
Riches, Kennedy, mean power. You will know that some day when you are the master of riches."

Alban walked on a little way without saying anything. Then almost as one compelled to reply he exclaimed:

"In the East End they don't speak of money like that. I suppose it is their ignorance—and after all it is a very great thing to be able to compel other people to starve for
you. Some day, I'll take you down to the sweating-shops, Mr. Geary.
You'll see a lot of old china there,
but I don't think it would be worth much. And all our flowers are for sale—poor devils, we get little enough for supper if we don't sell them."

The curate expressed no profound desire to accept this promising invitation, and desiring to change so thorny a subject entered a delightful
old-world garden and invited Alban's attention to a superb view of Harrow and the Welsh Harp in the hall,
to which at last they returned, he spoke of that more substantial reality, dinner.

"I am sorry to say that I have a Dorcas meeting tonight and cannot possibly dine with you," he explained to the astonished lad. "I shall return at nine o'clock, however, to see that all is as Mr. Gessner wishes. The servants have told you, perhaps, that Miss Anna is in the country and does not return until tomorrow. This old house is very dull without her, Kennedy. It is astonishing how much difference a pretty face makes to any house."

"Is that Miss Anna's portrait over the fireplace, sir?"

"You know her, Kennedy?"

"I have seen her once, on the balcony of a house in St. James' Square.
That was last night when I was on my way to sleep in a cellar."

"My poor, poor boy, and tonight
you will sleep in one of the most beautiful rooms in England. How wonderful is fortune, how amazing
—er—how very—is not that seven o'clock by the way? I think that it is, and here is Fellows come to show you your room. You will find that we have done our best for you in the matter of clothes—guesswork, I fear, Kennedy, but still our best. Tomorrow Westman the tailor is to come—I think and hope you will put up with borrowed plumes until he can fit you up. In the meantime Fellows has charge of your needs. I am sure that he will do his very best for you."

The young butler said he would—
his voice was still raised to a little just dignity, and he, in company with Silas Geary, the housekeeper and the servants' hall had already put the worst construction possible upon Alban's reception into the house. His determination to patronize the "young man" however received an abrupt check when Alban suddenly ordered him to show the way upstairs. "He spoke like a Duke," Fellows said in the kitchen afterwards. "There I was running up the stairs just as though the Guv'nor were behind me. Don't you think that you can come it easy with him—
he ain't the sort by a long way. I tell you, I never was so astonished since the Guv'nor raised my wages."

Alban, of course, was sublimely unconscious of this. He had been conducted to an enormous bedroom
on the first floor, superbly furnished with old Chippendale and excellent

The bloom, or color, which a loaf of bread takes on during baking, will be affected by the quality, character and grade of the flour.

The majority of makers of patent, in the straining after good color, in order to appeal in the dry state to the buyer's eye, produce a flour which has a marked tendency, when baked, against taking a healthy crust bloom. The bloom-making qualities have been removed during milling.

(Record-Herald.)

"We find," wrote the reviewing court, "that the trial judge erred
in that he admitted testimony tending to establish the guilt of the accused, and also in neglecting to dot
an 'i' in the papers of commitment.
The prosecuting attorney erred in that he counseled witnesses to tell the truth, knowing the same would be damaging to the accused."

"Reversed. Defendants admitted to bail in the sum of 15 cents." — Philadelphia Public Ledger.

But suppose that the reviewing court had been as narrow-minded as the trial court? Suppose that instead of being moved by a noble passion for personal liberty and the eternal principles of freedom it had basely approved the admission of testimony tending to establish the guilt
of the accused and ignored the omission of that dot over the "i"? Suppose that it had overlooked the error
of the prosecuting attorney in counseling the witness to tell the truth though he knew that this would be damaging to the accused? And suppose that the case had gone to another reviewing court and to still another, and that all the courts had been equally recreant to their great trust?

CONDUCTOR DIES FOLLOWING STROKE

F. P. ALMONRODE EXPIRES AT EARLY HOUR TODAY

TO BODY TO DUBUQUE TODAY

Wife Reaches Bedside Before the End, and Accompanies Body to Final Resting Place

F. P. Almonrode, Milwaukee road conductor, who was stricken with apoplexy at the Allen house on the north side yesterday morning, died at the La Crosse hospital at 1:30
this morning.

Mr. Almonrode had arisen in the best of spirits and in apparently the best of health, and his death is a severe shock to his many friends in this city.

The body was taken to Dubuque at 2:30 this afternoon and will be held there for one day, after which it will be taken to Xenia, Ill., for burial.
This is the former home of the deceased and is 85 miles east of Dubuque.

The body will be accompanied by Mrs. Almonrode, who arrived here last night. He leaves only a widow.

GEORGE MARTEAU OPERATED UPON

George Marteau, 829 Gould street, has been suffering for some time with varicose veins and was this morning taken to the St. Francis hospital, where he was operated upon by Dr. J. G. Egan. He was resting easily this afternoon.

Mr. Marteau is well known on the river among the various steamboat captains as he has been employed for several years past as cook on some of the river boats.

REV. RANDALL IS TENDERED RECEPTION

A reception was tendered the Rev.
A. A. Randall last evening at the North Presbyterian church by a large number of members of the congregation.

Rev. Randall recently accepted the North Presbyterian pastorate, coming to this city from Princeville, Ill., to take the place vacated by the resignation of Rev. W. J. Turner.

Vocal and instrumental selections were rendered, refreshments were served, and all spent a very enjoyable evening, the new pastor making many new acquaintances among his congregation.

Americans are progressive: The respect that fifty years ago was given to the grandmother, is now given to the child.

A new word is due because of the recent upheaval. If a man doesn't behave, "Roosevelt" him.

CARL MILBAURER DIES AT HOSPITAL

NEVER RECOVERED FROM THE

HAD WONDERFUL ENDURANCE

Marvelous Physique of Youth Kept Him Alive for Days After Any Other Would Have Died

After remaining unconscious for one week Carl Milbauer passed away at the La Crosse hospital at 7 o'clock
last evening.

Mr. Milbauer was hit by a street car one week ago and was taken to the hospital in an unconscious condition. He remained so since.

The deceased was twenty-one years of age and had been a resident of La Crosse for the last eight years.
He was born in Monroe county. He was well known on the north side
and at the time of his injury was employed at the Vote-Berger company.
He was said to be one of the best built men in this vicinity and it was due to his powerful physique more than anything else that he has clung
to life as long as he did.

The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

As a proof of the young man's excellent physique it is reported that while in the operating room he raised the nurses, one of whom was at each arm, off the floor, and also raised Dr. Miller off the floor with his head.

DECIDE SERVICE NEEDS "FIXING"

The question for debate at the Franklin club last evening was "Resolved, that the Petition of Senator Morris to the State Railroad Commission for Reduced Fare and Better Facilities was Justifiable."

The affirmative was argued by W. E. Barber and the negative by Attorney P. Mahoney. The jury decided unanimously in favor of the affirmative.

The question was of a good deal of interest to the people of La Crosse and as a result the meeting was well attended. President B. E.
Edwards of the City Railway company was present at the meeting and after the jury had reached their decision he was asked to speak on the matter. He talked to some length saying the service was as good as
was wanted and that the present fare was all right. He also said that the statement made by one of the members of the club during the debate to the effect that the stock of the company was watered, was erroneous.

He talked for some time and stopped just in time to catch the last car, and escaped to the south

OAK GROVE ASS'N WILL MEET TODAY

This afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be a meeting of the Oak Grove Cemetery association in the offices of Secretary R. Calvert for the purpose of closing the past year's business.

Reports of the year will be read and progress noted. The association made extensive improvements at the cemetery during the past year.

Remember it's a poor resolution that will not hold water.

BOWLERS TO MEET TOMORROW NIGHT

The Nine Pin club will roll at the alleys of Almer Yehle on Caledonia street tomorrow night. The North Side team will compete against the Mint team.

Next week the same teams will roll on the Mint alleys on the south

NORTH SIDE BRIEFS

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Dell
Schwarz of 1522 Caledonia street,
Wednesday, a ten-pound daughter.
Mrs. James Sowden who has returned from the south a short time ago is ill at her home on the North Side.

Mr. and Mrs. Swartz, 1522 Caledonia street, are the proud parents of a baby girl. The child was born Jan. 5.

Ed Giroux, 205 Rose street, has just passed through an operation at the St. Francis hospital and has recovered from the effects sufficiently to be out. He is being congratulated by his many friends on his speedy recovery.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Grimes,
a boy, in Green Bay, Jan. 16th.
G. F. Student, who has been confined at his home, 809 Avon street with a severe attack of grip, is recovering.

E. W. Torslund, 1538 Leomis
street, was called to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. C. Bjurström, at Stockholm, Wis.

B. Webber, Jr., 507 Caledonia street, succeeded in spearing an 18-pound pickerel in Colman's slough this morning. The fish is said to be the largest that has been killed
this year. Mr. Webber had some trouble in landing the fish, which jerked him through the ice.

The tickets for the Progressive League banquet have been issued and are on sale at the grocery store of L. E. Lavaque on the north side.
They can also be procured from the members of the committee in charge of the affair.

The annual banquet of the business men of North La Crosse will be held in the North Presbyterian church parlors Jan. 22. A number of prominent speakers have been placed on the program for an address and the event promises to be largely attended. The banquet service will be in charge of the ladies of the North Presbyterian church.

The Way to Win

Richard Canfield has abandoned Saratoga. "I liked Saratoga," he said, gloomily, the other day. "I made my clubhouse and grounds one of the show places of America. But of course, it had to pay. Everything must pay—at least in this country.
Everything, in the end, comes down to a question of money."

Mr. Canfield lighted a huge black cigar and frowned.

"Everything must pay, and hence,"
he resumed, "there was truth in the advertisement that a young man answered one day.

"The advertisement said: 'How to Win the Girl You Love. Full and explicit directions sent in sealed,
plain envelope, on receipt of $1.'"

"This young man, who loved a girl madly and hopelessly, sent on a dollar, and the answer came to him by return mail. It read: 'How to Win the Girl You Love. Get $1-000,000, and let her look at it.'—

MUTUAL BENEFIT ASS'N. MEETING

EMPLOYEES OF DOERFLINGER STORE ENTERTAIN

INTERESTING AFFAIR AT STORE

William Dolling President of Organization; Entertainment and Banquet Follow

A pleasant entertainment and banquet was held at the Doerflinger store last evening, following the annual meeting of the William Doerflinger Company Employees' Mutual Benefit association. Employees of the store entertained with a program which was immensely pleasing and a display of talent which surprised even the clerks and employees was shown.

There was a large number present at the business meeting which convened at 8 o'clock, and the following officers were elected for the year:

President—William Dolling.
Vice President—John Halvorson.
Secretary—H. B. Forseth.
Treasurer—Miss May Cleveland.
Directors for two years—Joseph Rudolph, Louis Specht and William Stritt.

Musical Program.

After the business meeting those present enjoyed the program arranged. Misses Mourning and Kate Mace rendered a pleasing piano duet which was followed by a vocal solo by Miss Lizzie Magin. Little Aurelia Fisher gave a patriotic recitation which brought prolonged applause. William Stritt, played several mandolin selections and the whistling and singing of Mr. Williams of the ice cream and candy department, caused a big hit. Mrs. Williams sang a solo and responded to an encore, and E. O.
Forseth rendered "Love Me, and the World is Mine." In a most pleasing manner. Miss Rose Antrim, an elo-cutionist of no mean ability responded to two encores and Louis Weigel sang a comic song and had to do it over. A violin solo by Miss Anna Drake and another piano duet by Misses Mourning and Mace closed the musical program.

The members of the association
then went to the main floor where a banquet on prettily decorated tables was waiting.

The affair was the first of its kind ever attempted, and was so thoroughly successful, that there will be another entertainment within a short time, it is expected.

Manager J. C. Toeller, who was present, was called upon to address
the meeting during the entertainment, and gave the members a number of good ideas in regard to the promotion of good fellowship, and of mutual benefit in the store and the association. He was heartily applauded.

MATTER FOR PSYCHICAL RE-

(Madras Mail.)

On the morning of October 19,
one of my dogs set up a most mournful howl, and I got out of bed and wrote on the wall, "Some one is dead," and the following day related my experience to the salt officer stationed here and recorded it on his chunam. My sister died at 4:45 a.
m. on the morning of October 19 at Wimbledon, exactly at the time that the dog gave the significant warning.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY FOR THE NAVY

The United States is the first world power to supplant the block system of signalling from ship with the wireless telephone. The above picture from Harper's Weekly shows Captain Ingersoll, chief of the staff to Rear-Admiral Evans, in the cabin of the flag ship Connecticut, communicating with other ships in the Pacific fleet. Dr. Lee De Forrest's invention is used. The method of sending a message to a distant ship
is simple. On the right of the apparatus is a receiving system, on the top of which is the tuning advice. By the cutting out of the microphone or talking circuit with a switch the apparatus may be used for wireless telegraphy, using the Morse signals.
The transmitter is on the left.
Nearly all of the battleships of the Pacific fleet have been equipped with this system. The contract calls for an operating distance of five

Some Scotch Sarcasm

The late Duke of Argyll and Sir William Jenner, physician to the queen, were both in attendance at Balmoral, and one morning at breakfast the discussion turned to the virtues of porridge. The duke, who was slight of build and small
of stature, overhearing some disparaging remarks on the national dish,
said:

"Porridge, why excellent stuff.
Could not be better. Why, I was brought up on porridge myself."

Jenner, who was a big man, and did not like the dish, looked sharply
across the table and retorted:
"Yes, and a good specimen of the result I think you think yourself."

FINISH PLANS FOR NEW CHURCH

Architects Schick and Roth have just completed plans for the Norwegian Lutheran church which is to be built in the near future at Wilmington, Minn.

It will be a pretty structure to cost perhaps $15,000 and will be of brick with Bedford stone trimmings.

The seating capacity of the church will be about 450.

It will also have society rooms, furnace heat and be modern in every way.

Work on the structure will be started as soon as possible.

CHILD SERIOUSLY BURNED ON HANDS

Yesterday morning at Onalaska, while her mother was keeping up a hot fire preparatory to washing, the 10-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Larson, was dangerously burned about the hands and face. The child was sitting in its buggy playing with a newspaper. The mother found it with the flaming paper, which had horribly burned its tender little hands, and had seriously burned its face. It is presumed the child had swept the newspaper over the hot stove and that it was ignited.

Dr. F. R. Weston was called and rendered relief for the little sufferer. Louis Larson, father of the child, is employed in the North side Milwaukee shops.

FIFTEEN BREWMASTERS HERE

Listen to Striking Address on the Liquor Subject by Louis Silberschmidt

Whiskey and prohibition were denounced as enemies of beer at the monthly meeting of the Upper Mississippi Valley Brewmasters' association in Linker hall last night. The members of the association were asked to start a campaign to show the nutritive value of beer as a food, and as a harmless beverage.

Fifteen brewmasters from various cities in the Northwest attended the meeting. This is the first time outsiders were represented. After the business session of the meeting, the appointment of committees to make the association permanent, a banquet was served under the direction of Chief John Neukomm.

Louis Silberschmidt, brewmaster of the John Gund Brewing company, president of the association, delivered the address of welcome. Mr. Silberschmidt spoke as follows:

First of all I want to thank you for the confidence you have placed in me, by honoring me with the office of president of this association, and I would like to assure you that I will do everything in my power to show you that your confidence is not misplaced.

"As you are all aware, the object of this organization is to establish good fellowship among its members. Mutual exchange of experience and ideas. Discussion of questions, arising either in practice, or technical journals and to elevate and preserve the interest of each colleague, as well as the brewing interest in general.

"You are aware of the agitation that is going on against our industry all over the country. Now, I believe the time has arrived when the brewers, brewmasters and all others that are affiliated with this industry, should get together and fight the enemy wherever he shows himself. I believe the dignified silence the brewers have maintained thus far against the onslaughts of the Prohibitionists, should be broken, and they should come out in the open and defend their business as well as any other legitimate business man should do. Now, when I say fight the enemy, I mean, whiskey and prohibition. I believe that whiskey should only be sold in licensed drug stores, and if necessary, only upon receipt of a doctor's certificate. The quicker the brewer breaks away from whiskey the quicker his troubles will end, and the quicker this temperance question will be solved, because I believe that beer is doing more towards true temperance than all the arguments the prohibitionists can make.

"I believe that we should elect a committee to draft a constitution and by-laws for this association, with the instruction that they enter in the paragraph under 'Aim and Object of This Society.'

"If the members see fit to enter politics to fight our battles at the polls. The prohibitionists are in politics, and I believe the only successful way to combat them is to enter politics ourselves.

"Beer is, in my opinion, the national beverage, and with the product that the brewers are producing today, I am very confident that the conservative element of our communities will not sympathize with the radical prohibitionists, if our side of the argument is put to them in the proper manner.

"I believe it should be the duty of every member of this organization to write to the congressman who represents the district he votes in, to use his influence to restore the army canteen, as there is absolutely no doubt that the abolishing of the canteen has been a detriment to the army, and the reports of every prominent general will show this.

"Now, gentlemen, I wish you would all give me your hearty co-operation to make this organization, a success and I will thank you for the kind attention you have paid to my remarks.

"I now declare the official meeting of the Upper Mississippi Valley Brewmasters' association as opened."

Dubuque Gets Meeting.
Dubuque, Ia., was chosen as the place for the next meeting. The date was fixed at Feb. 15, when it is expected brewmasters from Iowa, Southern Minnesota, Wisconsin and Upper Illinois will be present in a large body. These districts have been notified of the proposition to meet together and an attendance of one hundred or more is expected.

John Gund and Franz Bartl, old La Crosse brewmasters, were elected honorary members of the new society, as a mark of esteem for their labors in past years. Peter Bub, Winona, Minn., also a retired brewmaster, was elected an honorary member also. All retired brewmasters are eligible for the honor.

President Silberschmidt appointed a committee of three, consisting of George Neukomm, Carl Duerwachter and Edward Bartl to act as a committee to draw up a constitution and by-laws. The committee will report at the Dubuque meeting.

Work Is Honorable.

During the discussion of the evening, several brewmasters spoke of their own work, classing it as an art. The members said they have studied beer-making several years, and made it their life's work, and that the position is as honorable as that of the prohibitionist. The organization of the brewmasters was made for one of these reasons—to give the brewmasters standing in the community.

Banquet Is Served.

A FORMER FATTY NOW COMFORTABLE

Tells How She Got There

Dear Editor:—

The idea of me climbing stairs carrying a lot of dead weight, carting about a load of flesh that was taxing my strength and giving me nothing in return except a clumsy, uncomfortable appearance! No one can have a conception of how badly I was handicapped everywhere. To get around half as well as any well-promotioned person I had to breathe twice as much and as hard. I fairly waddled and was wobbly and never dared to attempt what ordinary girls do with ease, but all this has been changed since I took the advice of Margaret Knolly. Of course, now that the secret is out and everyone will soon know it, I might as well be candid with you. I have lost 37 pounds in 40 days. My waist line is now down to 24 inches and my bust measures 36 inches, so that I can claim to be well proportioned, but what is better than having a nice form or figure is the feeling of comfort. I can get around and do anything without the slightest effort—why I can button my shoes and button my waist down the back, and now of course you want to know what Margaret Knolly's secret is.

It is known as the Marmola Prescription and contains just three simple ingredients that are mixed together in your own home and cost but a trifle. The formula is as follows: 1/2 ounce Marmola, 1/4 ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, and 3/4 ounces Syrup Simplex. I took a teaspoonful of this mixture after meals and before bedtime and I was told I could eat and drink all I wanted and could discontinue the violent exercise and the long, tire-some walks. I must say that Marmola is a wonderful comfort to fat girls.

Your formerly fat,
now comfortable friend.

conclusion of the business session, when Chief Neukomm served a spread. Several toasts were responded to by the members. After the toasts German songs were sung. Those present were:

Ernest Hussa, Bangor, Wis.; Nicholas Schumacher, Potosi, Wis.; William Froese, Alma, Wis.; F. Bettner, Prairie du Chien, Wis.; John Kodak, Baraboo, Wis.; Hans Bevens, Winona, Minn.; Mike Schrak, Winona, Minn.; August Becker, Dubuque, Ia.; Ludwig Korfman, Milwaukee, Wis.; Alfred Anschutz, Dubuque, Ia.; Henry Faerberbach, Madison, Wis.; Edward Bartl, Louis Silberschmidt, George Neukomm, Christ Duerwachter, La Crosse.

EXTENSION CLASS MEETING SUCCEEDS

About twenty members attended the first regular meeting of the University extension class last evening in the small council chamber of the city hall.

A. J. Langenbach has general supervision of the work, which is being taken up, but the main part of the study is received from the University extension heads at Madison.

The meeting proved to be very interesting and the course of study for the coming year was passed upon.

There are no officers.

The subject which will be discussed at an open meeting to be held in the small council chamber Thursday evening, Jan. 23, will be "Heat."

Any who are interested may see just what the work is and if interested join the class.

MOTHER OF MRS. HENRY GUND DEAD

Mrs. Martha Johnson died yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Gund, 1509 King street, after a lingering illness. She was 71 years old and has made her home in La Crosse for the past ten years, coming here about ten years ago from Minneapolis, when her husband passed away.

For some time she had been suffering with heart trouble and about a week ago she contracted a cold, which developed into pneumonia, and together with a weak heart caused her death. She leaves two children, Mrs. Henry Gund of this city and A. G. Johnson of Marshalltown, Ia.

The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

AMERICANS ARE TOO EXCITABLE

TRAIT HAS COME TO BE ADMIR-ED, SAYS CARY

BURNS OUT THE ENERGIES

State Superintendent at Fond du Lac Says He Believes We Should Reform in This Respect

FOND DU LAC, Wis., Jan. 17.—(Special.)—State Superintendent C. P. Cary in an address before the Woman's club here this afternoon declared that the typical American is too excitable for his own good. His address is one of a series, which will be given here during the winter.

"The typical American is too excitable for his own good," said Mr. Cary. "He has wrinkled brows, tense muscles, high pressure methods of business. This over-tension uses up all the reserve force and the nervous system collapses in some trying moment. This over-tension is simply a bad habit we as a people have fallen into, and have unfortunately come to admire."

"Our flaxen-haired, nervous, over-tense children are crowded forward in every way we can conceive of, both in the school and in the home for the sake of showing off. Many a time have all seen these precocious young victims, particularly girls, late at night upon the street cars or in the home, every muscle an avery nerve a quiver, engaged in burning up their vital energies. It is a sad fact that those precocious and promising children never amount to much."

"They burn out their energies and then drag along to the end of life. Many a time have we seen in the school young girls with abnormally developed brains, bounding up and down, swinging their arms in an ecstasy of nervous excitement, while the teacher who was conducting the class beamed with satisfaction at the performance. Some class exercises are a very orgy of nerve dissipation."

"I am not talking against hard work, only against the awful tension in our work and in our pleasures. Our own happiness and the welfare of the race both require that we change our habits and our ideals in respect to the strenuous life."

flower. When the last ship was out of the harbor, we were well on our way to Trinidad.

"Today, Dec. 17, is a fine day. I had the 4 to 8 watch in the morning and will have the 6 to 8 in the evening. It is beginning to get a little rough, but I think it will calm down this afternoon. Well, I will stop writing now, and continue tomorrow."

"This is Dec. 18, a nice day again. It is a little windy, but I don't mind that much. I had the 8 to 12 watch this morning, and will have the 8 to 12 tonight. All the ships are still with us. I am on the Connecticut, flagship of the first division, consisting of the Connecticut, Kansas, Vermont and Louisiana. The second division consists of the flagship Georgia, Virginia, Rhode Island and New Jersey. The third division is the flagship Minnesota, Ohio, Missouri and Maine. The fourth division is the flagship Alabama, Illinois, Kearsarge and Kentucky."

"We also have the dispatch ship Yankton with us. She is a little small ship, about the size of the Mayflower. This is all the ships that are with us. We expect to reach Trinidad Christmas eve."

"Dec. 19 was another nice day. I had the 12 to 4 watch today and will have the 12 to 4 watch tonight. We are having fine weather for the cruise. We expect to pass Porto Rico tomorrow."

"The sea was rough on Dec. 20, although the weather was fine with a light breeze blowing. The Missouri left us to go to San Juan. I don't know just what she went for, but I think someone was sick, and the boat took him there. The Illinois' engines broke down, so she is running with just one engine now. I had the 4 to 6 watch today, and will have the 4 to 8 in the morning."

"On Dec. 21 it rained a little, although the day was nice. We passed the British West Indies today. They are a lot of small islands. Among the ones we passed were St. Thomas, St. John's, Culebra and some others. The Missouri and Illinois came back today from Porto Rico, and joined the fleet. Now we are together again. I had the 6 to 8 watch today and can sleep until 7 o'clock in the morning."

"The weather is pretty warm down here just now, and I am wishing for some of that breeze from the States."

"Dec. 22 was a nice day, with a good breeze blowing. Nothing of importance happened today. I had the 8 to 12 watch this morning and will have the 8 to 12 tonight. Dec. 23 was another nice day. There was a cool breeze blowing all the time. I had the 12 to 4 watch this afternoon."

"We came to anchor off Trinidad about 5:30 this afternoon. There is nice scenery here. All over can see a lot of hills with the town right on the water's edge. I don't think they will let anybody go ashore here, as we have no word of it yet. I would like to go very much."

"Our next stop will be at Rio Janeiro in South America. I think they will let us go ashore there, for we will be there about ten days. Rio Janeiro is a fourteen days' run from here."

"With an affectionate goodbye to his mother and sister, young Turner closes his letter here, with the promise to start another immediately."

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON A SAFE HOME TREATMENT

In S. S. S. nature has provided a certain, safe, home cure for Contagious Blood Poison. It is a medicine made entirely of roots and herbs of recognized blood-purifying value, and is the one medicine which is able to get down to the root of the trouble and remove every particle of the virus, and at the same time benefit and build up the system and general health. No harmful effects ever follow its use, as is so often the case when strong mineral medicines are used. As soon as the system gets under the influence of S. S. S. the disease begins to improve, and when the remedy has thoroughly purified the blood and driven out every trace of the poison, no signs of the trouble are ever seen again. The general manifestations of Contagious Blood Poison such as falling hair, copper-colored spots, ulcerated mouth and throat, sores and ulcers, etc., are merely symptoms of the poisoned condition of the blood, and in most cases respond quickly to local treatment, while S. S. S. is doing the necessary work of cleansing the blood. Our "Home Treatment" book is of great assistance along this line. It is a complete guide for treating the trouble, containing instructions for the different stages of the disease, and also valuable suggestions about the local treatment, that will be most helpful in effecting a cure. We will be glad to send a copy of this book, free of charge, to any who desire it, and if special medical advice is wanted our physicians will take pleasure in supplying it without cost to the patient. If you are suffering with Contagious Blood Poison you can cure yourself in the privacy of your own home by the use of S. S. S., an absolutely safe remedy.

GROWERS TO POOL WISCONSIN TOBACCO

STATE SOCIETY OF EQUITY PREPARES PLANS

TO JOIN ORGANIZED LABOR

Price of Sugar Beets is Fixed at $6—Organization to Have Newspaper Organ

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Jan. 17.—The principal proceedings yesterday in the state union, American Society of Equity, was its adoption of a report giving detailed plans for pooling Wisconsin tobacco; a resolution establishing a woman's auxiliary; the election of officers, the same as formerly, except that J. C. Hanson of Dane county, was elected treasurer; the adoption of resolutions for co-operation with organized labor, for eight hour day, postal savings, parcels post, against speculative trading, for a union label campaign; also the adoption of a recommendation from the wool growers' association that all members report the clip of 1908 to secretaries of the town, county and state; the adoption of a recommendation from the sugar beet committee that the price be $6 a ton at loading station and 5 cents a ton for soliciting acreage; the adoption of a recommendation that a state potato growers' association be organized and that the officers thereof confer with other state organizations; the adoption of resolutions by Assemblyman Brockhausen, for support of candidates for congress and legislature in sympathy with its aims of the union.

It was decided that a state newspaper organ be published at Madison and a company incorporated to publish it. President Emmerton says the convention must continue tomorrow to complete its business.

The report of the committee on pooling tobacco, of which Mr. Holmes is chairman, and which was adopted, recommends that all Wisconsin tobacco remaining unsold at this time be recommended that all Wisconsin tobacco growers' association; that local pools be formed in the more convenient places in every tobacco county in the state; that the secretaries of the local pools report to the state secretary as soon as possible the number of pounds of tobacco pledged; also the condition of financial facilities for handling and storing. The report includes a pledge to which is to be attached the signatures of the tobacco growers by which they appoint and employ the Wisconsin Tobacco Growers' association as their sole agent to sell the crop of tobacco grown in 1907. The growers in signing this pledge also agree and bind themselves to prepare for market all of their tobacco and to deliver the same wherever the association may designate and give the association full and complete control over the crop and they provide that there shall be paid to the Tobacco Growers' association 25 cents for every 100 pounds of tobacco sold by the association, such sum to be used to defray the expenses of the association. All tobacco growers who have not yet become members of the association are invited to become members and to co-operate with the association.

Officers Elected

Thomas Emmerton of Chippewa county was elected president to succeed himself by 268 votes to 60 for C. N. Luse of Eau Claire county. Nominations were then made for vice president, not including Luse, who is vice president, and he made a strenuous protest. He was re-elected over several candidates by 244 votes. Ex-Senator McGillivray of Black River Falls, who is in the convention, received 14, S. D. Kump of Madison was re-elected secretary by acclamation and J. C. Hanson of Dane county was finally elected treasurer.

THOUSAND FOWLS AT POULTRY SHOW

OSHKOSH, Wis., Jan. 17.—(Special.)—Armory B is a hen roost today for 1,250 fowls of all breeds and species. The Wisconsin State Poultry association's 1908 show opened this morning.

The growing number of poultry shows in Wisconsin each year has detracted not from the state show. It is said to be better and bigger this year than last year, when the record was established. Proof of this is J. A. Tucker of Concord, Mich., and Charles McClave of New London, O., who will again judge the birds on exhibition.

In the kennel department there are any number of barking, happy dogs. The animals are on exhibition in the basement, far from the maddening cluck of prize hen and rooster.

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 17.—(Special.)—The seventh annual show of the Wisconsin Feathered Stock association will open Monday at Schlitz park. A feature will be the display of homing pigeons holding distance or speed records. There are several international club prizes.

SHEBOYGAN, Wis., Jan. 17.—(Special.)—The annual Sheboygan county poultry show which opened Tuesday, closes tonight. It is considered a success from the financial standpoint.

The proprietors of the store has a greater feeling of joy inside him when an unmarried man come in to buy, than when the man is married.

RISK COMPANIES ONLY "BLUFFING"

SENATOR SAYS CORPORATIONS ARE NOT SINCERE

DEFENDS INSURANCE LAWS

John A. Hazelwood Declares Legislature and Governor Did Not Act Too Hastily

ROME, Wis., Jan. 17.—That the action of the insurance companies in withdrawing from Wisconsin is merely "bluff" to secure a repeal of the objectionable laws was the belief expressed by State Senator John A. Hazelwood of Jefferson in an address to an assemblage of Modern Woodmen here last night. Senator Hazelwood defended the insurance laws passed by the last legislature, denying that they worked an excessive or unnecessary hardship on the insurance companies, and denying that they were enacted hastily by men who were not familiar with the topic they were treating.

"It does not seem reasonable that companies holding less than one-third of the total insurance, and doing less than one-third of the new business each year in the state, are obliged to leave the state, when the companies holding two-thirds of the insurance on the insured citizens of Wisconsin and writing each year almost three-fourths of the new business, can remain and continue operation under the so-called 'drastic laws' passed by the last legislature," said Senator Hazelwood. "There is an ulterior motive back of the whole move. It is in my judgment a 'bluff game,' but I feel sure it will not work in Wisconsin; it may do so in some of the other states.

"It is no argument to state that the governor of Wisconsin did not comprehend the import of the laws he signed that were passed for the purpose of regulating the insurance companies. Nor is it relevant to charge that the members of the legislature did not understand the far-reaching effect of the laws. They were placed upon our statutes after due consideration and deliberation. Most of the laws were first passed by the 'peoples' house,' the assembly, after much deliberation; and then concurred in by a sufficient vote in the senate to pass them up to the governor for his approval.

"It was certainly interesting to observe the way the agents and representatives of the insurance companies swooped upon some dead animal, upon the senate and governor after failing to defeat the measures in the assembly. It was gratifying to the policy holders and people of the state to note that the senate and governor were not in the state of a dead animal. The senate and governor rose in their positions of trust and responsibility, and in keeping with their oaths of office, completed the work of writing the laws on our statute books that were demanded by the people of the state."

ARCTIC EXPLORER GIVEN RECEPTION

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 17.—(Special.)—The greatest gathering of Norwegians and descendants of native Norwegians in Milwaukee for years will be the reception here tomorrow for Capt. Roal Amundson, the explorer and navigator, whose name will go down in history as the discoverer of the Northwest passage. After the reception, Capt. Amundson will lecture in Hanover Street Congregational church on the trip of 1906 through the passage.

If possible, Gov. Davidson and a number of other state officials of Norwegian descent will be in Milwaukee to greet the navigator.

A FISHING RECORD

BURLINGTON, Wis., Jan. 17.—(Special.)—Julius Steffen and Will Schwantz of Slades Corners claim the winter fishing record of the state. While angling through the ice at Powers' lake they collectively caught twenty-eight pickerel, ranging in size from five to nineteen pounds each. The total catch weighed 261 pounds. The men fished only seven hours. Messrs. Schwantz and Steffen say they are prepared to compete with other claimants for the fishing championship, and to prove their claims, had a photograph taken of their string.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

GRAND RAPIDS.—The Wisconsin Cranberry Growers' association met here with an attendance of about 100 many over 100 varieties of cranberries grown throughout the world. It was decided by the members of the association to discard all but ten varieties for commercial purposes.

GLIDDEN.—The village has purchased the waterworks plant from D. F. Tyler for $13,000. The bonds are to be paid for in six years. The yearly payments, it is said, will not amount to much more than the former hydrant rental that was paid to the owners of the waterworks.

MANITOWOC.—Mayor C. A. Groffman has been elected president of the firemen's pension fund. City Clerk Reichert is secretary. The City Treasurer Mahneke is treasurer. The board will pension city firemen after twenty-two years of service or disability or injury.

WASHBURN.—An appeal is to be made to the supreme court in the case of John Specht, convicted of killing

DAN TURNEY WOULD BE NATION'S CHIEF

DANIEL BRAXTON TURNEY.

DECATUR, Ill., Jan. 14.—For president of the United States, Daniel Braxton Turney.

Such is the purpose, at least, of Mr. Daniel Braxton Turney himself, printer, lecturer and polemic. Mr. Turney has recently moved to Decatur from Effingham, Ill., and he says he is a candidate for the big job down at Washington. The Journal at Madisonville, Ky., says that Turney is one of the greatest men of the nation, adding that the common people love him as they loved Lincoln.

Just what party Turney intends to head is not apparent, but he says: "I have not solicited the honorable mention that has been made of my name and I have no promises to make, but I am persuaded that a man who falls to take issue with the rum traffic and who consents to a perpetuation of national partnership therewith, cannot be worthy of the presidency and should not be supported for it. Being a wage-earner myself and in full sympathy with those who toil, I am much surprised at the favor with which my name has been everywhere received. I believe in a government of law and not in an executive dictatorship. I believe in the constitution as construed by the courts and not overridden by arbitrary executive decree. Trust in God and firmly convinced that no amount of profit can make right of that which harms humanity, I feel grateful to the Lord for any measure of influence which may render me more useful to our fellowmen."

Mr. Turney is an interesting character and his life story is almost as unique as his presidential boom. His father was a second cousin of Henry Clay and his mother was a full cousin of James Knox Polk, who defeated Clay for the presidency. His father was born in Kentucky and descended from a revolutionary spy, Drymire Turney, to whom George Washington attributed much of his success at Yorktown. His mother was the only daughter of a minister, Carter Braxton of Virginia, one of the illustrious men whose name went beneath the Declaration of Independence. Such is the lineage which Daniel Braxton Turney boasts.

For Philanthropists

The late Dr. Eliphalet Wright of Lee, Mass., in the course of his long life ushered 6000 babies into the world. This is believed to be the record.

"Dr. Wright," said a resident of Lee, "had two passions—children and charity. In both he was most successful. He held that in both grace and delicacy were essential. He held that charity which was not graceful and clean was bound to fail, bringing to the donor scorn instead of gratitude.

"Thus, he once said in a Sunday school address, a rich landlord, while making the round of his tenants' cottages, collecting rents, met a little girl, whose beauty much impressed him.

"In the shabby front room of the cottage the landlord talked for a while with the little girl, and as he rose to go an unwonted feeling of kindness warmed his heart.

"Let me see," he said, fishing in his pockets—"let me see if I haven't something to give to this dear little girl."

"And smiling and chuckling he went through pocket after pocket. Finally, in his hip pocket he found a peppermint drop, a white peppermint drop. He dusted the fluff and lint from it, and extended it gayly to the little girl.

"Here we are," he cried. "I thought we had something. Here is a nice peppermint drop for you. And now," he ended, "what will you do with it?"

"Wash it," said the little girl gravely."—Boston Herald.

An army of tramps is headed toward New York. Poor men! Their plight must indeed be desperate.

Boney Lombard in the town of Barnes and sentenced to twenty years in the state prison.

WAUKESHA.—Fire of unknown origin which ignited the bed in a room at the rear of the millinery store in the Putnam block on Broadway, while no one was at home, caused considerable damage.

KEOSHA.—Oliver Hertzberger was taken into custody at the point of a revolver while engaged in the act of robbing the store of J. A. Winberg.

WAUKESHA.—Andrew Stanbaugh of Evansville, aged 65 years, was married to Mrs. Elizabeth Dutcher of this city, aged 57 years.

NEENAH.—Every paper mill in the city is shut down and about 600 men are out of employment.

OSHKOSH.—Practically all of the prominent bankers of Oshkosh are opposed to the Aldrich bill.
